Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

Double Eagle Acquisition Corp., a Cayman Islands exempted company (the “Company”), issued a press release today announcing that it has established the close of business on Monday, October 30, 2017 as the record date (the “Record Date”) for its extraordinary general meeting (the “Extraordinary General Meeting”) to be held with respect to the previously announced business combination (the “Business Combination”) with Williams Scotsman International, Inc. (“Williams Scotsman”). The Company also announced that it will establish the date of the Extraordinary General Meeting once the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) has completed its review of the Company’s registration statement on Form S-4 filed in connection with the Business Combination. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.

Additional Information About the Business Combination

In connection with the proposed Business Combination, the Company filed a registration statement on Form S-4 (File No. 333-220356) (the “Registration Statement”) with the SEC, which includes a proxy statement/prospectus that is both the proxy statement to be distributed to holders of the Company’s ordinary shares in connection with the Company’s solicitation of proxies for the vote by the Company’s shareholders with respect to the Business Combination and other matters described in the Registration Statement, as well as the prospectus relating to the offer and sale of certain of the securities to be issued in the Business Combination. After the Registration Statement is declared effective, Double Eagle will mail a definitive proxy statement/prospectus and other relevant documents to its shareholders as of the Record Date. The Company’s shareholders and other interested persons are advised to read the preliminary proxy statement/prospectus included in the Registration Statement and the amendments thereto and the definitive proxy statement/prospectus, when available, as these materials will contain important information about Williams Scotsman, the Company and the Business Combination. Shareholders will also be able to obtain copies of the proxy statement/prospectus and other documents filed with the SEC, without charge, once available, at the SEC’s web site at www.sec.gov, or by directing a request to: Double Eagle Acquisition Corp., 2121 Avenue of the Stars, Suite 2300, Los Angeles, California, Attention: Eli Baker, Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary, (310) 209-7280.

Participants in the Solicitation

The Company and its directors and executive officers may be deemed participants in the solicitation of proxies from the Company’s shareholders with respect to the Business Combination. A list of the names of those directors and executive officers and a description of their interests in the Company is contained in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016, which was filed with the SEC and is available free of charge at the SEC’s web site at www.sec.gov, or by directing a request to Double Eagle Acquisition Corp., 2121 Avenue of the Stars, Suite 2300, Los Angeles, California 90067, Attention: Eli Baker, Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary, at (310) 209-7280. Additional information regarding the interests of such participants will be contained in the proxy statement/prospectus for the Business Combination when available.

Williams Scotsman and its directors and executive officers may also be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from the shareholders of the Company in connection with the Business Combination. A list of the names of such directors and executive officers and information regarding their interests in the Business Combination are included in the Registration Statement.

Information Concerning Forward-Looking Statements

The Company makes forward-looking statements in this report within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements relate to expectations or forecasts for future events, including the expected date for the Extraordinary General Meeting. These statements may be preceded by, followed by or include the words “estimates,” “projected,” “expects,” “anticipates,” “forecasts,” “plans,” “intends,” “believes,” “seeks,” “may,” “will,” “should,” “future,” “propose” and variations of these words or similar expressions (or the negative versions of such words or expressions) are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance, conditions or results, and involve a number of known and unknown risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other important factors, many of which are outside the Company’s or Williams Scotsman’s control, that could cause actual results or outcomes to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements. Important factors, among others, that may affect actual results or outcomes include: the inability to complete the Business Combination; the inability to recognize the anticipated benefits of the proposed Business Combination; the inability to meet NASDAQ’s listing standards; costs related to the Business Combination; Williams Scotsman’s ability to manage growth; Williams Scotsman’s ability to execute its business plan; Williams Scotsman’s estimates of the size of the markets for its products; the rate and degree of market acceptance of Williams Scotsman’s products; the success of other competing modular space and portable storage solutions that exist or may become available; Williams Scotsman’s ability to identify and integrate acquisitions; rising costs adversely affecting Williams Scotsman’s profitability; potential litigation involving the Company or Williams Scotsman or the validity or enforceability of Williams Scotsman’s intellectual property; general economic and market conditions impacting demand for Williams Scotsman’s products and services; and such other risks and uncertainties as are discussed in the Company’s Annual Report on 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016 under the heading “Risk Factors” and the proxy statement/prospectus filed in connection with the Business Combination. Other factors include the possibility that the Business Combination does not close, including due to the failure to receive required shareholder approvals, or the failure of other closing conditions. Neither the Company nor Williams Scotsman undertakes any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law.
